Numb. 1737

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 10. to Thursday July 13. 1682.

Stockholme, June 30.

THis Court is full of Joy for the Birth of a young Prince, of which the Queen was delivered the 27th Inſtant in the morning; and all the Foreign Miniſters have performed their Compliments to his Majeſty thereupon. The Marquiſs de Feuquieres, the French Ambaſſador, is expecting his Succeſſor the Sieur Bazin, upon whoſe arrival he will immediately part hence on his return home. There are Letters from Liefland, which ſay, That they had advice from Moſco, That the Wife of the Czar deceaſed was with Child, and that that Country was like to fall into great Troubles.

Genoua, July 1. The 26th paſt arrived here the Genoua-Merchant, Captain Manners, in 30 days from England, and not having touched in Spain, had immediate Prattick. The ſame day came in the Bonadventure, Captain Belvin, in 33 days from England, and 11 from Alicant, bound for Venice; and the 29th, arrived the Friends Adventure, Captain Young, from Ireland; ſhe came from Cadiz about 15 days ſince, and then Admiral Herbert was there with five Men of War, bound for Tangier, and from thence for England. This Morning came in here a French Veſſel from Lisbon, who came from thence in company of the Portugueſe Fleet, which is now at Villa-Franca, attending the Duke of Savoy, whoſe Indiſpoſition makes his departure uncertain.

Venice, July 4. This Week we received Letters from Conſtantinople, dated the 30th of May, which give an account that the Moſcovite Ambaſſador had had his Audience of the Grand Signior, and that the Ratifications of the Peace between the Port and the Czar of Moſcovy had been exchanged; That Count Caprara, the Imperial Miniſter, had likewiſe had his Audience on the 15th of May, and that it was hoped he would in a ſhort time be able to give a very good account of his Negotiation: That the Preparations for War were continued, though the Grand Signior ſeemed to have no Inclination thereunto, and the rather for that the Mufti had adviſed him againſt it: That the French Ambaſſador was endeavouring to compoſe matters with the Grand Vizier, and in order thereunto had offered him a conſiderable Sum of Money.

Vienna, July 5. General Caprara has Orders to part the next Week for Hungary; and ſeveral Regiments are commanded to march that way: and two days ſince, an Expreſs was ſent to General Straſaldo, with Orders, That he ſhould immediately take the Field with the Forces under his Command, and Poſt himſelf ſo as that he might beſt obſerve the motions of the Turks, who according to our laſt Advices lay Encamped in two Bodies. And at the ſame time all imaginable care is taken to provide the Imperial Gariſons on that ſide with Men, and all things neceſſary for their defence. The Emperor is ſending Count Kamitz to the Court of Bavaria, to relieve Count Lobcowitz.

Liege, July 10. On the 6th Inſtant the Commons of this City being aſſembled, unanimouſly reſolved, That the Magiſtrates ſhould in 24 hours disband the Troops they had lately raiſed, and that in caſe they did not, they ſhould be puniſhed as diſturbers of the publick Peace; whereupon the Magiſtrates the next day Publiſhed a Paper, by which they juſtified what they had done; which farther incenſed the Burghers, ſo that they put themſelves in Arms, and beſet the Houſes of the Burgermaſters, who however got away, and retired to Maeſtricht.

Cologne, July 14. Our Magiſtrates, upon the aſſurances they have received, that the French will not attempt any thing againſt this City, have Disbanded 10 Companies of the laſt-raiſed Men, and intend to keep no greater Gariſon than they have uſually had in times of Peace. Our Letters from Francfort bring nothing of moment, the Conferences there being in a manner at a ſtand through the diſpute concerning the Language, and ſome other points. From Munick they tell us, That the Elector of Bavaria had written a Letter to the Elector of Brandenburg, wherein he exhorts him with great earneſtneſs to eſpouſe the Intereſts of the Empire, and to enter into ſuch Engagements with the Emperor and other Princes, as ſhall be judged moſt effectual for the preſerving the Peace and Rights of the Empire.

Bruſſels, July 14. The Duke of Wirtemberg is come hither to ſpend ſome days at this Court, and is very kindly received and treated by his Excellency. The French proceed with great rigour againſt the Subjects of Spain who have Lands in the French Conqueſts, which they have Confiſcated, and are very hard upon the Tenants to make them pay their Rents, with all their Arrears. The Marquiſs d'Humieres, Son to the Mareſchal of that name, and the Marquiſs de Morbee, being in company together at Lille, they quarrelled, and thereupon fought, and the Marquiſs de Morbee received three very dangerous wounds, and the Marquiſs d'Humieres was ſlightly hurt; they are both Priſoners in the Cittadel at Lille, till his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſties Pleaſure be known concerning them. The Prince of Parma is now preparing in good earneſt, at Cologne, for his return to Spain; moſt of his Servants that are here are to Embark at Oſtend, and the reſt are to meet his Highneſs in his Journey. The Count d'Archinto has received his Patent from Spain, to be firſt Senator of Milan, and is accordingly preparing for his Journey thither, which he will begin about the end of the next Month.

Hague, July 17. The Sieur Dieſt, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburg, has preſented a Memorial to the States-General, wherein he repreſents unto them, how deſirous his Electoral Highneſs is to maintain the Peace of Chriſtendom, and prays the States in his Electoral Highneſſes